The Special Stage (SS) Stella of km 10.250 (asphalt) is a very much loved trek by drivers for its shape which leads to a gradual approach to the car gradually they thread the path. The trek has a very rhythmic start, with winding curves and it arrives at the village of Stella, where the rider, taking the necessary confidence in your own car, must let go on a downhill, trough some traits mixed-speed, leaving breathless. Arriving into the village of Flaipano the speed gives way to a mixed-fast driving with a hump between the houses of village Frattin and the many closing curves that characterize the remaining route, including up and down, until the end of race, positioned 300 meters before the village of St. Elena in Montenars.
